Dietz's Diamond Oil.

WE NOW OFFER TO THE PUBLIC in full confidence a new article of

KEROSENE OIL,

Which we warrant in every particular to be

Superior to any other Oil ever brought to the San Francisco market. It has been thoroughly tested in all the different Patent Coal Oil Burners, and found to produce by one-third, than any other oil in use.

More Light and Burn Longer

Among the many advantages of this KEROSENE OIL over all oils is: First, that it is perfectly NON-EXPLOSIVE, and can be used with perfect safety in all kinds of LAMPS. Second, it is free from all objectionable and unpleasant smells, and burns with a clear white brilliant flame. We cordially solicit the public and FAMILIES to give this Oil a trial, and once tried, we feel confident it will gain a preference over all other Oil for economy as well as its superior burning qualities.

In order to protect ourselves against Counterfeits we have placed a brand on each can and case, which will be known as

DIETZ'S DIAMOND OIL.

It is now offered at wholesale and retail at 505 Front street,
Between Washington and Jackson streets,
And at Branch Store, 56 Second street,
2d door from Mission, San Francisco,

With the stars of a Union unbroken and true!
Arise and defend it! ye sons of the brave,
Whose blood bought the banner your valor must save

WEDNESDAY MORNING, JUNE 4, 1862.

News of the Morning.

The election returns have come in but slowly as yet, but in every instance so far heard from, the Union State Ticket has carried from ten to three hundred majority. Enough has been heard from to place beyond doubt the entire success of the whole Union State Ticket, as also the election of nearly all the county tickets. In fact, it is doubtful whether the self-styled Democracy have carried a single county in the State. The secesh about town carry an awfully sad countenance, and as predicted by us yesterday, they are growing beautifully less each arrival of election returns from different parts of the State. Had the manner of voting been by ballot, we are confident that not a dozen could be found in this city to-day, who would be willing to acknowledge that they voted the secesh ticket. We saw several of this class yesterday, who look as though they were looking for and would be extremely happy to find a "knot hole." "If there is anything in the world calculated to ruin the sympathetic passion of man," it is the situation of these wo-begone looking individuals. Many of them are good fellows, (except their secesh proclivities,) and we like them, with that exception, but from our inmost soul we pity them. Well, well, we will let them slide for the present.

The stage last evening brought Sacramento papers of the 28th May. There is no news from the East, the telegraph line not being in operation beyond Omaha, Nebraska.

HUNG.—Andrew J. Pate, convicted of the murder of George Lamb, committed last December, in Linn county, near Albany, Oregon, suffered the extreme penalty of the law by hanging at Albany, on Tuesday, the 27th day of May. The confession of Pate, which had been published in pamphlet form, was circulated on the day of his execution, the substance of which we gain from the Statesman, of June 2d. He says:

"That on the day of the murder, he started to Albany with a gun, going by where Lamb was at work; that a quarrel took place between them, during which Lamb attempted to seize an axe, swearing to take Pate's life; Pate fired at him while he was stooping, and then started off. Lamb seized a stick and followed, running and swearing he would kill him, yet; Pate knocked him down, when Lamb not being able to rise, requested Pate to finish him, whereupon the latter dragged him to the slough, where the body was afterwards found, laid him in the water, cut his throat, and then rolled a log on the body. His story of the murder of Lamb is not credited at Albany."

The confession concludes: "The worst act of my life was the killing of George Lamb, and that was done when under a state of excitement and anger, and not through premeditation." There were about two thousand persons present at the execution, among whom were a good many women and children. He was taken from the jail between 11 and 12 o'clock, A. M., and conversed freely while going to the place of execution. After getting out of the carriage he shook hands with the guard, bidding them farewell, and then mounted the scaffold with a quick and steady step. After the reading of the death warrant, he arose and addressed the spectators, saying the printed confession which he held in his hand was true; that he was prepared to die. He several times requested the sheriff to be careful to prevent any accident in the execution. The drop fell at six minutes before 1 o'clock. The fall was fully six feet, breaking his neck. He expired instantly, with only one or two struggles. He was cut down at the end of twenty-five minutes and immediately buried.

THE FOURTH OF JULY.—The people in many parts of California are already preparing for a grand celebration of our Nation's birthday, and all loyal journals urge them to make ready in good style. We have something more to be glad for this Fourth than last. Can't the people of Portland and other parts of Oregon go and do likewise, and better, if possible, than was done last Fourth?

HISSED BY THE LADIES.—The Placerville Herald says that after Judge Hardy had been declared disloyal by the High Court of Impeachment, and while speaking in his own defense, the ladies of San Francisco who were present, hissed him.

HIGH WATER.—The Sacramento river, at latest date, was represented to be eighteen feet above low water mark, and slowly rising. The American river, also continues to rise but not in a threatening manner.

Clackamas County.

OREGON CITY, June 2d—2 P. M.

Editor Oregonian:

The Clackamas returns are all in except one precinct—a small one. Estimating that, shows the Union county and Legislative ticket to be about two hundred votes ahead, and the State ticket, in consequence of the volunteers voting, has over four hundred majority. Granny Wait did not run ahead of the Secesh ticket.

Milwaukie, in this county is the banner precinct of the State. Out of eighty-two votes, there is not one Secesh. Will send complete returns when in.

Linn County.

EUGENE CITY, June 2—8 P. M., 1862.

EDITOR OREGONIAN:

Polls of election just closing. This precinct will give the State ticket about 20 majority for Union. County ticket will vary some, owing to local causes. The county, it is now estimated, will give from 50 to 80 majority for the Union State ticket, and average about that for the county ticket, although some of the candidates may possibly be defeated. Clerk and Sheriff will run some ahead of their ticket. The election passed off quietly. Yours, &c., S.

Loss of the Carrie Ladd.

The Carrie Ladd, on her trip to the Cascades yesterday morning, struck on a rock at Cape Horn, and commenced filling so rapidly that she was immediately run ashore on the Washington side. Her passengers had barely time to get ashore before she filled, and she now lies with one side under water. About twenty tons of freight were taken ashore and the balance thrown overboard to lighten the boat. It is thought she cannot be saved.—The Mountain Buck, which was coming down, took the Carrie's passengers to the Cascades.

SENATOR STARK IN JEOPARDY.—The St. Louis correspondent of the Sacramento Union, writing under date of April 25th, says:—"There is every reason to fear that the new Senator from Oregon is a traitor, after all. The Select Committee, appointed at the instance of Senator Stark to investigate the charges against his loyalty, consisting of Senators Clark, Sherman, Willey, Wright and Howard, made their report last Tuesday. It is very voluminous, embracing proceedings of the Committee, and setting forth the reasons which led them to the following conclusions:

First—That for many months prior to the 21st of November, 1861, and up to that time, the said Stark was an ardent advocate of the cause of the rebellious States.

Second—That after the formation of the Constitution of the Confederate States, he openly declared his admiration of it, and advocated the absorption of the loyal States of the Union into the Southern Confederacy, under that Constitution, as the only means of peace, warmly avowing his sympathies with the South.

Third—That the Senator from Oregon is disloyal to the Government of the United States.

All the members assent to the first and second findings, and all but Senator Willey to the third also. The Committee say they deem it inexpedient to send to Oregon for further testimony, inasmuch as it could not be procured in season for the Senate to act before September, when, by the meeting of the Legislature, Stark's seat will be vacated. Opportunity was, however, given Senator Stark to send for rebutting testimony, but he declined, stating that two of the fifty witnesses against him were not to be believed, and that he would neither affirm nor deny the truth of the other affidavits. For the rest Mr. Stark's testimony seemed to show to the Committee that he still entertained substantially the same opinions as in November. To tell the truth plainly, Mr. Stark is a traitor. Not one like Breckinridge, who would go into the rebel army, but worse—one who remains where he can hinder the Union cause by his votes and influence, while he takes every occasion to encourage the spirit of rebellion and disloyalty among the people of the North. Stark is as bad as Bright of Indiana, and he will meet a similar fate.

J. B.

I am not superstitious, gentlemen, but allow me to tell you that I shall always steer clear of the initials "J. B." J. B. indicates John Breckinridge; J. B. stands for John Bull; and, without intending to be offensive, I will remind you that J. B. stands for John Brown.—Emerson Etheridge.

It is told as a positive fact, that Floyd stole Buckner's horse to make his escape from Fort Donelson.

CHINESE FUNERAL.—Our attention was attracted yesterday afternoon by martial music. Looking out of our sanctum we beheld a long train of Chinamen coming down Miner street, with a hearse in front, and just behind a band of music consisting of a fife and two drums, followed by Chinamen with banners and the flag of their country. On inquiring what was up, was informed that a Chinese Free Mason had died on Humbug, and had been brought over here to be interred. Having our curiosity excited, we fell in the wake of the train with a lot of equally curious "melican" men, and walked up to the city cemetery to witness the ceremonies. After arriving at the grave, the coffin was placed over it, and then came the roast pig, chicken, boiled eggs, biscuit baked and unbaked, next came the chief mourner, and two sub-mourners. The chief mourner was dressed in white, the subs in their usual dress. They all fell down at the foot of the grave and commenced to cry, the chief much the louder of the three. After this the members of the lodge knelt down at the foot of the grave, two at a time, and kissed the ground two or three times. One of the brethren then sung a song, and all we could understand was—"and his soul goes marching on." This being over, cigars were passed out and to every body who would partake, followed with candy, which seemed to be the best part of the whole performance to the "melicans." The City Sexton looked very good natured at the whole, as he was paid off in the cigar and candy arrangement. The closing scene was the burning up of all the papers and wax candles. The band then struck up a lively tune and we all went marching home. The fifer tried to play Yankee Doodle, but broke down, to the great chagrin of the drummers. The bass drum was played according to note, and the band discoursed a variety of lively airs, including Dixie, as a premonition of a similar fate for its followers.—Yreka Journal, May 24.

There was no connection with the boats on the Upper Columbia. There is, therefore, nothing later from the mines.

Night Sweats and Spitting of Blood.—Among the numerous advertised remedies for these complaints, none can be found so efficacious as DR. HALL'S BALSAM. It soothes the irritation, stops the sweating, and restores the strength in a very short space of time. It is well worth your trial.

Coughs.—The sudden changes of our climate are sources of PULMONARY, BRONCHIAL and ASTHMATIC AFFECTIONS. Experience having proved that simple remedies often act speedily and certainly when taken in the early stages of the disease, recourse should at once be had to "Brown's Bronchial Troches," or Lozenges, let the Cold, Cough, or Irritation of the Throat be ever so slight, as by this precaution a more serious attack may be effectually warded off. PUBLIC SPEAKERS and SINGERS will find them effectual for clearing and strengthening the voice. See advertisement.

SOCIAL INTIMACY REQUIRED EVERYWHERE. It has been a matter of regretful remark to many a good, honest, social business person, that the whole aim and constant object of some communities seem to be to get gain, grab all, let the consequences be what they may to others. We have often remarked the too great desire to acquire wealth regardless of comfort, social happiness, and the interchange of friendly sentiment. Considering the very brief period of life allotted, by the great Ruler of the Universe, to each and every individual, very much more of our time ought to be devoted to social intercourse and the cultivation of those qualities which induce happiness, procure contentment and prompt moral rightfulness in the intermingling of the members of the same community. The human family is a great brotherhood, and no man is completely independent of his neighbor, consequently we ought to spend more of our brief lives in conversations of friendliness with each other; we ought all to live in a continual manner as to be able to take, respectively, by the hand every man and look him in the eye with the inward knowledge that we have never injured him in word or deed, and truthfully express sentiments of friendship for him and a warm desire to see him prosper in worldly accumulation and personal happiness. In limited communities more especially ought the people to love and assist another, cultivate convivial qualities and honestly practice the frequent interchange of friendly greetings and social gatherings at private residences and every bachelor domicil. A community thus friendly will always be prosperous in every branch of business and in every manner of pleasurable enterprises.

A BEAUTIFUL FIGURE.—How beautiful is the following, and happy must be the heart that can see those beauties and understand them:

"Why is it that the rainbow and the rain clouds come and pass over us with a beauty that is not of earth, and then pass away and leave us to muse on their faded loveliness? Why is it that the stars that hold their nightly festival around the midnight throne are placed above the reach of our limited faculties, forever mocking us with their unapproachable glory? And why is it that the light forms of human beauty are presented to our view and taken away from us, yet leaving the thousand streams of affection to flow in Alpine torrents upon the heart? We were born for a higher destiny than that of earth. There is a realm where the rainbow never fades—where the stars will be set before us like islands slumbering on the ocean, and where the beautiful beings that pass before us like meteors will stay in our presence forever."

POPULAR ERRORS.—It is an error to suppose that because you silence a man you convince him, or because he declines to answer you, he lacks the power.

It is an error to fancy that because a woman looks at you she is in love with you; or because she sighs when you are by that she is dying for you. Sighing is a well bred modification for yawning, and as often betrays weariness as anxiety or solicitude.

It is an error to suppose that because a man smiles on you he is your friend; or because he covets your society he cares a fig about you—Smiles and professions are the cheapest things in market except patriotism.

It is an error to suppose that because a woman can play the piano and embroider, she is accomplished, or because she speaks in a low voice and rolls her eyes up with tenderness that she is amiable.

RATS AFRAID OF POWDER.—H. H. Ballpar, Owen county, Kentucky, writes to the American Agriculturist that with one quarter of a pound of gunpowder he can keep every rat from his premises for a year. "The powder is not used to drive a bullet or shot through the animal, but is simply burned in small quantities, say a teaspoonful in a place, along their usual paths, and at the holes where they come out, with the proper precaution to prevent accidents from fire." He says he has proved its efficacy by repeated trials. The rat has a keen sense of smell, and if he has not sense enough to know that he is not wanted, when he perceives the odor of the burnt powder, the remedy will be of great value.

Variety.

Women should set good examples, for the men are always following them.

Chickens will never hurt you if not eaten till dead.

To prevent being thrown from a horse—ride a mule!

To "draw" a lottery prize—put it on a hand-sled.

To prevent being sleepy in church—stay at home.

To prevent your having a cold supper—stay at home.

To tell a lady's age—find out when she was born and then figure on it.

To tell how fast a horse travels—keep up with him on foot with a stop watch.

An unlucky word when once dropped from the tongue cannot be brought back by a coach and six.

The editor of a paper in Indiana wants to know if the western whisky was ever seen "comin' thro' the rye."

"I know by a little what a great deal means," as the gander said when he espied the end of a fox's tail sticking out of a hollow tree.

☞ Said a seedy-looking fellow to a rich friend—"If you ever have a dispute with any one, about money, just leave it to me."

☞ The construction of a ship canal between Lake Erie and Michigan, is a project that is being agitated.

ESTABLISHED IN 1854 FOR THE PERMANENT cure of all Chronic and Private Diseases, and the SUPPRESSION OF QUACKERY. Attending and Resident Physician, L. J. CZAPKAY, M. D., late in the Hungarian Revolutionary War; Chief Physician to the 20th Regiment of Honveds; Chief Surgeon to the Military Hospital of Pesth, Hungary; the late Lecturer on Diseases of the Genito-Urinary Organs, and Diseases of Women and Children, and Honorary Member of the Philadelphia College of Medicine.

☞ Particular attention paid to the treatment of diseases peculiar to Women and Children.

Office Hours—From 9 A. M. to 9 P. M.

☞ Communications strictly confidential. Permanent cure guaranteed or no pay. Consultations, by letter or otherwise, FREE.

Address, DR. L. J. CZAPKAY, San Francisco.

Of all diseases, the first great cause,
Springs from neglect of Nature's laws.

To the Afflicted:

Suffer not when a cure is guaranteed in all stages of secret diseases—Self-Abuse, Nervous Debility, Syphilis in all its stages, Strictures, Gleet, Gravel, Diabetes, diseases of the Kidneys and Bladder, Mercurial Rheumatism, Scrofula, Pains in the Bones and Ankles, diseases of the Lungs, Throat, Nose and Eyes, Ulcers upon the Body or Limbs, Cancers, Dropsy, Epileptic Fits, St. Vitus Dance—and all diseases arising from a derangement of the sexual organs—such as Nervous Trembling, Loss of Memory, Loss of Power, General Weakness, Dimness of Vision with peculiar spots appearing before the eyes, Loss of Sight, Wakefulness, Dyspepsia, Liver Disease, Eruptions upon the Face, Pains in the Back and Head, Female Irregularities—and all improper discharges of both sexes. It matters not from what cause the disease originated, however long standing or obstinate the case, recovery is certain, and in a shorter time than a permanent cure can be effected by any other treatment, even after the disease has baffled the skill of eminent physicians, and resisted all their means of cure. The medicines prescribed are pleasant, without odor, entirely vegetable, causing no sickness, and free from mercury or balsam. During fifteen years of practice in Europe, the Atlantic States and California, I have rescued from the jaws of death many thousands who in the last stages of the above mentioned diseases had been given up to die by their physicians, which warrants me in promising to the afflicted who may place themselves under my care a speedy and permanent cure. Private diseases are the greatest enemies to health, as they are the first cause of consumption, scrofula and many other diseases, and should be a terror to the human family. A permanent cure is scarcely ever effected—a majority of cases falling into the hands of incompetent persons, who not only fail to cure the disease, but ruin the constitution, filling the system with mercury, which, with the disease, hastens the sufferer into a rapid consumption. But should the disease and the treatment not cause death speedily, and the victim marries, the disease is entailed upon the children, who are born with feeble constitutions and the current of life corrupted by a virus which betrays itself in scrofula, tetter, ulcers, eruptions and other affections of the skin, eyes, throat and lungs, entailing upon them a brief existence of suffering and consigning them to an early grave.

Self-abuse is another formidable enemy to health; for nothing else in the dread catalogue of human diseases causes so destructive a drain upon the system—drawing its thousands of victims through a few years of suffering down to an untimely grave. It destroys the nervous system, rapidly wastes away the energies of life, causes mental derangement, prevents the proper development of the system, disqualifies for marriage, society, business and all earthly happiness, and leaves the sufferer wrecked in body and mind, predisposed to consumption and a train of evils more to be dreaded than death itself. With the fullest confidence I assure the unfortunate victims of self-abuse that a permanent and speedy cure can be effected, and with the abandonment of ruinous practices, my patients can be restored to robust vigor and health.

Irregularities and all diseases of males and females treated on principles established by fifteen years of practice and sanctioned by thousands of the most remarkable cures.—Medicines with full directions sent to any part of the State, Oregon and Washington Territory, by patients communicating their symptoms by letter.

Remarkable Instance of Medical Relief.

Below we publish the certificates of three of the sufferers from the pangs of disease, who, having recovered their former health, and impelled by gratitude, make known their cases and remedial agent, and their statements are authenticated by a Notary Public. [illegible] publicity, and we commend them to the attention of all afflicted.

Certificate.—The undersigned, desirous of acquainting those who may be unfortunate enough to be similarly afflicted, where a permanent relief of their sufferings may be obtained, feels it his duty to thus publicly express his most sincere gratitude to Dr. L. J. Czapkay for the permanent recovery of his health. Borne down by the distressing symptoms incident to the vicious practices of uncontrollable passion in youth, depressed in body and mind, unable to perform even the most trifling duty imposed upon the ordinary avocations of life, I sought the advice of many physicians, who at first regarded my disease as of trifling importance—but alas! after a few weeks, and in several instances months of their treatment, I found to my unutterable horror that instead of relief, my symptoms became more alarming in their torture, and being told by one that my disease being principally confined to the brain, medicine would be of little consequence, I despaired of ever regaining my health, strength and energy; and as a last resort, and with but a faint hope, called upon Dr. Czapkay, who after examining my case, prescribed some medicine which almost instantly relieved me of the dull pain and dizziness in my head. Encouraged by the result, I resolved to place myself immediately under his care, and by a strict obedience to all his directions and advice, my head became clear and my ideas collected, the constant pain in my back and groins, the weakness of my limbs, the nervous reaction of my whole body on the slightest alarm or excitement, the misanthropy and evil forebodings, the self-distrust and want of confidence in others, the incapacity to study, and want of resolution, the frightful, exciting and at times pleasurable dreams at night followed by involuntary discharges, have all disappeared, and in fact in two months after having consulted the doctor, I felt as if inspired by a new life—that life which but a short time ago I contemplated to end by my own hand. With the view to guard the unfortunate [illegible] into the snares of incompetent quacks, I deem it my duty to offer this testimony to the merit and skill of Dr. Czapkay, and recommend him to all who may stand in need of medical advice, being assured by my own experience that under his care a radical and permanent cure will be effected.

I was frequently, while in pursuit of my [illegible] thrown down to the ground without the slightest [illegible] and although insensible to the agonies, I yet [illegible] miseries of my life, and soon learned to look upon [illegible] would render assistance or shelter me from danger [illegible] ers who sought to prolong the existence of my [illegible]. While in this state and having, previous to my [illegible] tasted the sweets of life, I once more was [illegible] seeking aid of a physician, and, by ra[illegible] upon Dr. L. J. Czapkay. I told him of my [illegible] and of my inability to reward him for his [illegible], of which, however, he at once undertook my case, [illegible] the blessing of God, I was once more restored to [illegible] health. Unable to reward him for the boon which [illegible] present, and yet conscious of my indebtedness, I [illegible] due to myself and all afflicted, to make the case [illegible] order that those in need of medical advice may [illegible] cian in whom every confidence can be placed.
